

GRACE AND BOX by Kim Howard & Megan Lötter

Discussion Guide

1. What was your favorite thing that Box became? Why?
2. If you were to play with Box, what would you like to imagine?
3. What did you wonder as you listened to Grace and Box?
4. What questions would you like to ask the characters?
5. How did Grace fix Box? What other ideas do you have for how Box could have been fixed?

6. How do you think Grace felt when she noticed Box's rip? How do you think she felt after she fixed him?

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

KIM started writing books when she was in elementary school. She used to sell them to her grandma for 25¢ each. Like Grace, she also loved using her imagination and would make tunnels and houses out of boxes. When she grew up, Kim became a teacher. Now, she has her Ph.D. in Curriculum Studies and writes books for children. She lives in southern Indiana with her husband and their three children.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

MEGAN is a picture book maker living in beautiful Cape Town, South Africa. Megan graduated from Cape Peninsula University of Technology in 2008 with a degree in Design. Her love for drawing and visual storytelling started at a very young age. This naturally drew her toward the fascinating world of illustration. South Africa's cultural diversity, twelve different languages, beautiful animals, patterns, and colors are underlying themes found throughout Megan's illustrations and characters.

For ways to purchase GRACE AND BOX and for more free lesson plans, visit www.kimhowardbooks.com